Explanation of the position, including any recommended amendments:

HBs 4188-90 prevent any adverse action against a child placement or adoption agency that chooses to discriminate based on its sincerely held religious beliefs. The prohibited adverse actions include denying the agency's application for funding or cancelling the agency's funding. In essence, the bill requires Michigan taxpayers to fund discriminatory actions based on religious principles. The Family Law Section believes that a private faith based agency can decide for itself how it wants to handle placements of children voluntarily placed with agency. The Family Law Section does not believe that public funds can be used to support discriminatory actions.

The Family Law Section opposes these bills.
